Attachment F

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES OF INTEREST

i - The Surge of Converts to Judaism in Ancient Rome Why did so many non-Jews, even from the ranks of the Roman elite like Queen Helena and Nero, convert to Judaism?

ii - Roman glass — a brief introduction to Roman jewellery, vessels and other decorative arts and objects in glass from antiquity. Christie's iii - Adventures in Greece's Past, and Present, in the British School at Athens

iv - Learning to spell in Linear B – It's All Greek To Me

v - Spelling B: how did Mycenaean scribes learn to spell in Linear B?

vi - How does the 'Antikythera Mechanism' work?

vii - Rediscovering Rome's Female Merchants: Ailia Isidora and Ailia Olympias, paid a mason to carve a dedicatory inscription on the walls of the Egyptian Temple at Medamound viii - The Charaktêres site - Ancient Magic and Ritual Practice - Roger Pearse

EXHIBITIONS & lectures

i - Forthcoming exhibition at the British Library - Alexander the Great: The Making of a Myth. Fri 21 Oct 2022 – Sun 19 Feb 2023

ii - The Black Classicists Exhibition, is coming to the UK. Opening at St Gabriel's School, Newbury, then available to schools, universities and others. If you would like to put this exhibition on, please email classics@stgabriels.co.uk The exhibition consists of 14 panels of African-American Classical Scholars from the late 19th-early 20th century iii - CRACKING ANCIENT CODES. THE MAN WHO DECIPHERED LINEAR B: THE STORY OF MICHAEL VENTRIS. ONSITE & ONLINE TALK Tue 12 Jul, 2–3pm

Ashmolean Museum and Online

iv - Athens Epidaurus Festival 2022 PROGRAMME

vi - Wednesday 8th June. The Epithet Megas. Classical Association in Northern Ireland