Images can be searched on our new website, digital.bsa.ac.uk. Use the advanced search button and select a "collection event". A few of our Archive Stories have highlighted these study tours: D.G. Hogarth's forays into the historical geography of Asia Minor, R.M. Dawkins' study of Greek dialects in Cappadocia and the Pontus, and F.W. Hasluck's exploration of the religious communities of Mount Athos.

Hi everyone, my good friend Ben Salisbury has been creating these excellent resources alongside his PhD supervisor, Hannah Cornwell, which cover content on the A level Classical Civilisation and Ancient History specification. The content is focused on the Late Roman Republic. I think these do a great job in setting things out for students in a way they will understand:
