

GREECE

Athens and environs

i – Hiding in Plain Sight: Aristotle's Lyceum Set for Major Upgrade

One of the central components of the upgrade is the creation of a digital information pavilion dedicated to Aristotle's life, philosophy, and enduring influence.

ii – Ancient Agora Temple Restoration to Enhance Visitor Experience

iii – The Secrets of the Ancient Neighborhood Beneath the Acropolis

iv – "The House With the Caryatids:" an Architectural Gem in Athens

v – The Academy of Athens: A Neoclassical Masterpiece

vi – New Partnership to Protect Zappeion and Historic Landmarks in Athens

vii – Ancient Acharnae: The Lost Heart of Athens' Largest District

viii – The secret lives of forgotten ancient Greeks - Brauron

Reconstructing their lives is an exercise in worldbuilding. When I caught up with McHugh on a video call on a sweltering summer day, she explained that understanding ancient life is about putting the sanctuary and the people who visited it back in their environment.

ix – Greece Launches Major Conservation Project at Ancient Rhamnous Archaeological Site

x – Aegosthena - Inspectors found no major damage to the fortress walls, the restored southeastern and northeastern towers, or the churches inside the Akropolis. Smoke and fire residue, however, reached the painted decoration inside the churches. Conservation teams must now clean it immediately. xi – Archaeologists reexamined an ancient Greek mass grave where nearly 80 men were buried together, many still shackled at the wrists xii – Roman Athens Emerges as New Archaeological Site Takes Shape (near Olympian Zeus)

xiii – A Historic Revival: The Panathenaic Stadium's Marbles Shine Again

xiv – The Parthenon frieze was designed to be viewed as a cinematic sequence that only comes to life as you walk by, not as a static work of art

Central Greece

i – Who Was Titormos? New Statue Honors the Legendary Ancient Greek Giant

A towering new statue of Titormos, the legendary strongman of ancient Aetolia, has been unveiled in Agrinio

ii – Emblematic Roman Mosaic to Be Restored in Trikala

iii – Restored Ancient Theater of Stratos Opens to the Public

Peloponnese

i - Argos

a – Larissa Castle: A Timeless Sentinel Over Argos, Echoing Millennia of History

b – Greece Opens the Restored Archaeological Museum of Argos

c – New cultural core takes shape in Argos

The museum's location in the center of Argos, near the Byzantine Museum of Argolis and the future Epigraphic Museum, is contributing to the formation of a new cultural core, described as a "museum neighborhood," ii - Kykeon Mystery of Eleusis May Have Scientific Basis

Importantly, the researchers stress this does not mean LSD was created or consumed, as often misrepresented online. Rather, it demonstrates that the process could yield psychoactive compounds while reducing toxicity.

- iii - Scientists have used ancient tree rings to pinpoint when builders raised a major Late Bronze Age site near Sparta
- iv - Greece to Transform Historic 'Xenia' Mycenae into Theater Venue
- v - The Odyssey Puts Messinia's Ancient Treasures Back in the Spotlight
- vi - Ancient Thouria's retaining wall emerges alongside the Artemis statuette discovery
- vii - Isthmia. Beautiful Roman Swimming Pool
- viii - Venetian Port of Nafaktos Restored After €1.87 Million Project
- ix - Untouched Mycenaean Tomb in Aigio Reveals Priceless Treasures
- x - A remarkable bronze griffin from ancient Olympia will return to the United States for a major exhibition at New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art (The Met), just a year after Greece repatriated the artefact following its illegal trafficking.

N. Greece

i – Thessaloniki

- a - A Landmark Revitalized: The Bey Hamam Reopens in Thessaloniki
- b - Rare Hellenistic Terracotta Figurine of Aphrodite Anadyomene Emerges from Ancient Tomb in Thessaloniki
- c - 3,000-Year-Old Bones Reveal How Ancient Greeks Cremated Their Dead
- ii - Mount Olympus joins Unesco list of world heritage sites
- iii - 6,200-Year-Old Settlement in Greece Had a Double Ring of Protective Ditches

iv – Amphipolis

- a - Amphipolis Emerges as a World-Class Archaeological Destination
- b - Amphipolis Enters New Phase of Restoration Ahead of 2028 Public Opening
- c - Amphipolis' Kasta Tomb on Track to Open in 2028
- v - Meteora Municipality Highlights Historic Psyrras Bridge to Grow Cultural Tourism
- vi - Restoration starts for lower cavea of Roman Theatre of Ancient Nicopolis
- vii - Kilkis Archaeological Museum to Undergo Major Upgrade, Kouros Gets Earthquake Protection

Crete and the Islands

Crete

i – Crete

- a - The Moving Story of a Boy and His Dog, Buried Together in Ancient Crete
One of the most emotionally resonant additions to the Museum of Ancient Eleutherna's collection, in Crete—exhibited to the public for the very first time—is the jar burial (pithos burial) of a young boy aged 10 to 11.
- b - Bronze Age Elites in Greece and Crete \(Anemospilia\) Wore Rings Made from Meteorite Iron
- c - Bronze Age rings discovered in Greece and Crete may contain meteoritic iron, suggesting the rare metal was used as a symbol of wealth and status among ancient elites.
Some Bronze Age Greeks may have worn jewellery made from metal that literally came from the heavens.
- d - Gortyn. 450 Buried Mice Found in Sanctuary on Crete Point to Ancient "Mouse Cult"
- e - Hidden Roman Marvel: Crete's 7-Mile Aqueduct Still Supplies Heraklion
- ii - Olive oil flavoured with oregano was recovered from clay jars sealed inside a Greek merchant ship that sank in the Aegean roughly 2,400 years ago during the lifetime of

Socrates — meaning the salad dressing sitting on a table at your nearest Mediterranean uses roughly the same recipe

e – The Silent City of the Dead: The Minoan Necropolis at Armeni, Crete

iii – New Archaeological Museum Opens on Remote Agathonisi Island

Diachronic Archaeological Museum

iv – The Ancient Greek Family Portrait That Reveals Life in Archaic Samos

v – Ancient Shipwreck off Andros Reveals 600 Amphorae from Classical Greece

vi – Thassos Archaeological Museum: A Journey Through a Marble Island's Past

vii – Greece to Restore Ancient Roman Villa in Kefalonia

viii – A new study of ancient leaves and other plant remains from the Lesvos petrified forest is revealing a far more diverse ecosystem than the site's spectacular preserved tree trunks alone suggest.

ix - Greek Island of Ithaca Rejects Plan to Brand Other Islands as 'Islands of Odysseus'

x - An unfinished Greek Temple on Naxos is giving archaeologists a rare opportunity to examine and uncover new secrets about how builders worked with massive marble blocks about 2,500 years ago.

xi - The Great Gods of Samothrace, Whose Names We Don't Actually Know

A mystery cult on a wind-battered island that would initiate anyone who showed up; free or enslaved, Greek or not, king or nobody. Philip II met Olympias there. We still can't say with certainty which gods they were being initiated into.

xii – Lady of Kalymnos. A Fishing Net Dragged a 2,300-Year-Old Bronze Woman from the Aegean Depths

xiii - Samos: Greek Culture Ministry Plans Unified Archaeological Park at Pythagoreio