

GREECE - Attachment C

Greece Launches 'BIAS II' Program to Protect Biodiversity in Archaeological Sites

Athens and environs

i – Plans approved for the construction of a museum at Faliro, south of Athens, that will exhibit a group of 78 shackled skeletons, believed to have been executed in the 7th century BC.

ii – The Acropolis and the Unconscious: Freud's Unexpected Revelation in Athens

iii –

a - The Mycenaean Wall on the eastern plateau of the Acropolis of Athens, near the site of the Old Museum, is undergoing significant restoration.

b - Acropolis' Mycenaean Wall to Be Restored, East Side Opening to Visitors

iv - Discovering Ancient Piraeus: A Cultural Journey Through Greece's Historic Port

v - New Era for Greece's National Archaeological Museum

Designed to be participatory, accessible, and engaging, the museum will balance scholarship with entertainment.

vi - Rhamnous site to trade rough trails for walkable paths vii – Solving the Mystery of the Acropolis's Vanished Temple

viii – A small fragment of Bronze Age pottery unearthed at a Mycenaean settlement south of the Acropolis is now offering scholars further insight into the development of Ancient Greek Art

ix – Ancient Greeks Engineered a Divine Light Show Inside the Parthenon, Oxford Study Reveals

N. Greece

i - Kilkis Set for Transformation with 7 Million Euros in Culture and Tourism Projects. More than seven million euros have been allocated to cultural projects between 2019 and 2025, as part of efforts to enhance the city's profile as a cultural and tourism destination.

ii - Kasta Tomb in Amphipolis on Track to Welcome Visitors by 2027

iii – The ancient burial site of Doxipara, Evros - Where the Rich Were Buried With Horses

iv – Theopetra Ancient Stone Wall in Greece May be World's Oldest Artificial Structure

The roughly 23,000-year-old wall, built about 21,000 B.C. during the last Ice Age, is made of carefully selected stones bonded with clay mortar and blocks roughly two-thirds of the cave's entrance

v – Ancient classroom where Aristotle taught Alexander the Great yields rare student writing tools - Mieza

vi - Ancient Fortress Found in the Heart of Greece's Pindus Mountains

vii – New archaeological findings are challenging long-held beliefs about the origins of large-scale trade in the ancient Aegean, suggesting that the Northern Aegean region was a major commercial power centuries earlier than previously thought.

viii - New Historical Network Project Planned for Thessaloniki

ix – In the ancient city of Orraon or Horreum one can still see the best preserved ancient houses from the Classical and Hellenistic periods.

x – The Forgotten History of Greece's Kingdom of Thessalonica

xi - Gitana: The Ancient Capital of Thesprotia, Greece

xii – Traces of ancient trade unearthed in Xanthos excavations xiii - Ancient Amphipolis: Digging into life at the acropolis

Classical archaeology professor Dimitris Damaskos talks about some of the most recent big finds made at the archaeological site in Eastern Macedonia

xiv - Ancient Greek City of Argilos Reveals Its Secrets With New Discoveries

xv - Major Restoration Project Underway for Archaic Temple of Apollo Hopleus in Thessaly

Central Greece

i - Police officers in Fokida, central Greece, discovered a hidden 'vertical tunnel' near an archaeological site that was being used for looting.

ii - The so-called stepped pyramid of Amphion in Thebes, Greece, remains one of the most mysterious monuments of <https://greekreporter.com/ancient-greece/>, challenging long-held assumptions about early Greek architecture and its connections with neighboring civilizations.

iii - The Sacred Band of Thebes, the military corps formed by pairs of lover hoplites who fought to the death at Chaeronea

iv - Delphi's Ancient Theatre Set for Major Restoration Works

v - An excavation on the eastern slopes of Lake Kifisida, also known as Kopaida, has uncovered an elite Archaic-era burial archaeologists are calling the "Lady with the Inverted Crown \(Diadem\)." The site lies about six kilometers \(3.7 miles\) north of the Sanctuary of Apollo Ptoios and ancient Akraiphia

Peloponnese

i - "Divers Find 2,000-Year-Old Sunken City": Greek Archaeologists Uncover Massive Underwater Port In Asini That Reveals Lost Mediterranean Trade Hub With Advanced Harbor Engineering

ii - NEW VIDEO TOUR! – The Sanctuary of Asklepios: A Meditative Walk Through the Archaeological Site at Ancient Epidaurus

iii - The Roman Odeon of Patras is being reborn

iv - The Lost Lake of Ancient Olympia: How a Waterway Impacted Greece's Olympic Games

v - Mycenaean Sword Bearers May Be Women, Not Men, Study Finds

vi - Thrown in a Late Roman Jail. The remains of the Boudroumi prison, located amid the Northwest Shops at Late Roman Corinth.

vii - Argos, Greece: A Copy Of The Magnificent 'Farnese Hercules' Statue Was Placed In The Most Central Part Of The Town

viii - German Woman Returns 4th-Century BC Greek Column Head to Ancient Olympia

ix - From Lechaion to the lab - combining science and archeology to investigate ancient Greek lives

x - Scientists Recreate 3,000-Year-Old Perfume from Bronze Age Pylos

xi - How important are the structural remains at Mycenae, other than those of graves to our understanding of Mycenaean society?

xii - [Astonishing remains of 2,400-year-old Greek girl with flower crown unearthed in Patras \[on display in Museum\]](#)

xiii - Roman Odeon of Patras: Restored and reopening its doors

xiv - New Views of the Kingdom of Pylos - The National Herald

Crete and Islands

i - Polyaigos: Greece's Largest Uninhabited Island Declared Archaeological Site

ii - Discovery of Massive Ash Deposit in Aegean Sea Reshapes Greece's Volcanic History

- iii – Hidden structures found around a 2,300-year-old Hellenistic tower on the island of Paros
- iv - The Fat Lady of Saliagos (also known as The Naked Lady of Saliagos) is the oldest known Cycladic sculpture.
- v – Major Upgrades Planned for Knossos Palace and Chania’s Mocenigo Bastion
- vi - Exploring Pyrgi: The Chios village with painted walls Geometry and ethnomathematics
- vii - How Santorini Was Resettled After the Minoan Eruption
- viii - Major Upgrades Planned for Knossos Palace and Chania’s Mocenigo Bastion
- ix – Hidden Roman Marvel: Crete’s 7-Mile Aqueduct Still Supplies Heraklion
- x - Music Bridges Five Thousand Years of Greek History on Bronze Age Keros
- xi - The House of Dionysus: A Window Into Delos's Golden Age
- xii – Naxos Temple of Apollo secured after visitor lifts ancient stone
- xiii – Heraion of Samos: The Most Important Sanctuary of Ancient Greece
- xiv - Excavations in Crete Reveal Animal Statue and Glimpse into Ancient Greek Life
- xv - Obsidian. The Treasure of Milos That Shaped the Dawn of Human Civilization
- xvi - Archaeologists Puzzle Over Purpose of Unique Minoan Labyrinth on Crete
- xvii - Project Revives Mycenaean Legacy at 'Archontiki' on Psara
- xviii - Researchers Reveal Semi-Submerged Ancient Settlement at Naxos
- ix – Greece's Ancient Delos Revived Through Circular Augmented Reality App
- x – Ancient Treasures Unearthed in Fournoi and Ikaria
- xi - Hephaistia: The Ancient Greek City on the Island of Limnos
- xii – 4,000-Year-Old Minoan Houses, Built Centuries Before Palaces, Hid Clever Designs
- xiii - Fraud or Find? What We Know About Crete's Mysterious Phaistos Disk
- xix - Minoan Architects' Genius: Landslide Protection Found at Archanes Palace

Cyprus

- i - Ancient coins discovered in charity donation. The first coin, a silver tetradrachm, dates to the 2nd century BC, while the other two coins are a bronze follis from the 4th century AD and a copper 40-nummi (follis) from the 6th or 7th century.
- ii – Choirokoitia: Cyprus’ 9,000-Year-Old Neolithic Round-House Settlement
- iii – Bronze age building and artefacts uncovered at Erimi
- iv – Major Architectural and Figurine Finds at Cyprus's Prehistoric Settlement
- v – Excavations at the Pyla-Vigla completed