iii - Interesting Story about Roman Quarry in Zvornik. "It was the largest Roman quarry in the Balkans, and it is assumed that this is the largest and best-preserved cave type monument of Roman stone monuments in Europe. This is a very important site where Slovenian archaeologists discovered that the stone from this quarry was driven to Sirmium, one of the capitals of the Roman Empire": <http://www.sarajevotimes.com/interesting-story-about-roman-quarry-in-zvornik/>
